

Mayor Sergio Farias
City of San Juan Capistrano

Sergio Farias was born and raised in the city of San Juan Capistrano. The son of Mexican immigrants, he was instilled early with the values of hard work and service to one's community.

Sergio attended local public schools and has lived his whole life in the city of San Juan Capistrano. When he was younger, he served actively in the mission parish for several years. Sergio has been a neighborhood leader and volunteer in San Juan Capistrano for more than a decade. He has assisted residents with obtaining legal representation in addition to other resources and has been a consistent voice for his community. Sergio is also a small-business owner and runs his own landscape maintenance company.
